GEORGE R.

Whereas by our Royal Proclamation, dated the Twenty Third Day of January last, intituled, A Proclamation for encouraging Seamen to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War, We were graciously pleased to promise, that every Able Seaman and every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service, who should voluntarily enter themselves to serve in Our Royal Navy, on or before the Twentieth Day of February last, in such Manner as in Our said Proclamation is required, should respectively receive, as of Our Royal Bounty, the respective Sums expressed in Our said Proclamation, (that is to say) every Able Seaman the Sum of Thirty Shillings, and every Ordinary Seaman the Sum of Twenty Shillings—And whereas by Our subsequent Proclamation, dated the Sixth of February last, intituled, A Proclamation for recalling and prohibiting Seamen from serving Foreign Princes and States; for giving further Encouragement to Seamen to Enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War;—and for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves,—We did further promise and declare, That all Able Seamen who should, on or before the Tenth Day of this Instant March, voluntarily Enter themselves in Our Service, in the Manner directed by Our afore recited Proclamation, should receive, as of Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Three Pounds, and all Ordinary Seamen so Entering themselves as aforesaid, the Sum of Two Pounds; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid for the Discovery of such Seamen who might conceal themselves—And whereas we are willing not only to continue the Encouragements and Rewards given by Our said last mentioned Proclamation for some longer Time, but to allow, that the said Encouragements to Volunteers should commence from the Twenty-third of January last, being the Date of Our first mentioned Proclamation; and likewise to give a Bounty to such Able-bodied Landmen who have or shall Enter into Our Service at Sea—We do therefore, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby promise and declare, That the said Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Forty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to all such Able and Ordinary Seamen, who shall Enter into Our Service, on or before the Thirty-first of this Instant March—And We do hereby promise and declare, that all such Able and Ordinary Seamen, who have Entred themselves into Our Service on or before the Sixth Day of February last, in Consequence of Our first Proclamation of the Twenty-third Day of January, shall receive the like Bounty with those who have Entered themselves subsequent to that Time, and that the Reward of two Pounds for every Able and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman be also continued to be paid to any Person, who shall, on or before the Thirty-first of this Instant March, discover any Seaman or Seamen, who may conceal themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen shall be taken for Our said Service by any of Our Sea-Officers employed for raising Men—And We do hereby further promise and declare, that all such Able-bodied Landmen, who have voluntarily Entered themselves into Our Service since the Twenty-third Day of January last, or shall Enter themselves into Our Service, on or before the Thirty-first of this Instant March, shall receive, as of Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man; all which respective Sums are hereby required to be paid by the Persons and at the Times directed by Our aforesaid Proclamations.

By the KING'S PATENT.

HIS MAJESTY having been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the 17th Day of October 1751, in the 25th Year of his Reign, unto Richard Rock, of the Parish of St. Bridget, otherwise Bride's, London, Licentiate in Medicine, for his New Compound Medicine, or Anti-Venereal Cathartick Electuary, for the true Cure of fresh Venereal Injuries, and all the lurking Relicks or Remains of old ones, which he has brought to a surprising Degree of Perfection in the Cure of the several Stages of the Venereal Distemper; from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree thereof, without breaking or impairing the Constitution, enervating the human System, or leaving any Foulness or Weakness behind: This is therefore to acquaint the Publick, for whose Use and Benefit the said Letters Patent were principally obtained, that the said most admirable Electuary is sold by him at the Golden Head and Key, Bell Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate Hill, London, at only 6 s. and a Book of plain Instructions (by the Help of which every one may be his own Physician) given with each Pot: Where Advice is to be had, and all Debilities, Obstructions of the urinary Passages, and Gleet, are absolutely cured.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisy, Quincies, acute Rheumatism, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James Esdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6d.
